Environmentally and Sustainable tips offered by the EAAC. This month's tip is: Green Tips for Washing Your Vehicle.

RECYCLING TIP OF THE MONTH

What should you do with Shredded Paper?

- You can put shredded paper into your household trash.
- You can bring bagged shredded paper to County Paper Shredding Events. Click here for event dates.
- You can bring shredded paper in CLEAR PLASTIC bags to the Purple "Shredded Paper" dumpster at the County Resource Recovery Complex in Mansfield Township. The purple dumpster is the only public dropoff for shredded paper.

DO NOT BRING SHREDDED PAPER TO THE MUNICIPAL DROPOFF.

SIGN UP FOR MOSQUITO SPRAYING NOTIFICATIONS

Residents can sign up for notifications of the Burlington County Mosquito Control calendar. The calendar will be updated as to when they will be spraying with the helicopter in Medford Township as well as when they will be performing adulticides (spraying for adult mosquitoes) with the truck driving through the area fogging. Most notifications will be at least 24 hours before the treatments but in an emergency, this could be shorter. Once you are signed up for the notifications you will receive an email when they update the calendar with an event.

To sign up:

- Go to the Burlington County Website at www.co.burlington.nj.us
- Hover over the How Do I in the top menu
- When the menu opens there is a title on the right side that says Sign Up, under that click on Notify Me
- Next enter your email and scroll down to the calendars heading and make sure to check next to the Mosquito Spraying calendar

You should now be signed up for the notifications for mosquito spraying.

Any questions should be directed to the Burlington County Mosquito Control Offices at 609-265-5064.

NEW JERSEY OPEN BURNING LAW

There are multiple rules regarding fire pits in the State of New Jersey depending upon the fuel the pit burns, the size of the container the fire is in and whether or not the fireplace structure is permanent and approved. Click here for more information on the NJ Open Burning Law.

FIREWORKS

The Medford Township Council and employees wish all residents a safe and happy Independence Day holiday. To insure your safety and the safety of others, please check out New Jersey's fireworks laws and fireworks safety information.
